FOUR TALKS · INTERACTIVE · BUILT FOR PEOPLE WHO WERE NEVER TAUGHT CIVICS · FOR TEENS OR ADULTS

Democracy Is a Project, and You Are the Manager

The accountability cycle in plain language: know your public servants, write down the promise, check in, decide.

Best for: High schools, colleges, churches, community groups.

Documentation Beats Conversation

How to get answers in writing: records requests, written complaints and letters to officials.

Best for: Community organizations, advocacy groups, students.

We Paid For That

Our tax dollars built it, so why are we paying twice? Drug prices, stadiums, data centers, with the receipts.

Best for: Colleges, civic and labor groups, conferences.

A Case Study: Nolan Xavier Wells

How a death investigation works and where it can break down. From public records. Questions, not accusations.

Best for: Law and criminal justice classes, HBCUs, community forums.
